PRESS RELEASE

Summer Reading Kicks Off June 25 at Albany Public Library

Lots of Activities All Summer Long, Including Huge Outdoor Festival July 9

ALBANY, NY—School is out and summer reading is in at Albany Public Library (APL). From June 25 to Aug. 20, APL encourages reading by providing prizes and special activities to keep kids and teens engaged and entertained during those long summer months away from school.

Participants register and record their reading in person at any of Albany Public Library's branches. This year's summer reading theme is "On Your Mark, Get Set...Read," so many activities highlight sports and fitness activities. The 2016 APL Summer Reading Program is sponsored by the Friends of Albany Public Library, Price Chopper and Market 32, and Stewart's Shops.

More than 100 special activities and events are scheduled during the eight-week program, in addition to more than 100 regular story times and game programs. Kids can stop by their neighborhood Albany library to:

- Explore the world of sports and fitness with Library Olympics, inflatable bowling and sumo wrestling, hula hoops, mini golf, Wii sports, Zumba, soccer and baseball, yo-yos, breakdancing and hip hop, indoor tennis, and Quidditch
- Learn about reptiles, mammals, dinosaurs, filmmaking, and Rube Goldberg machines
- Create and sample yummy snacks like cupcakes and popcorn, veggie kabobs and fruit smoothies, ice cream sundaes and lollipops, and s'mores
- Use their creativity to sew clothes, make paper mache art, craft pop-up books, build a song, and program a dancing robot

Here are just a few notable summer reading activities, which are all free and open to the public. Details and more listings are on the library's online calendar and in the Summer Reading Program guide, which can be printed and is also available at all APL branches.
