Pet Guardian, the APF's partnership program with the YWCA of Schenectady, is for pets belonging to women affected by domestic violence. Pet Guardian provides a safe place for the animals while their owners are in transition to a new home. The goal of Pet Guardian is to enable victims to leave abusive situations without leaving their pets behind. This program also provides basic veterinary care to these animals, including spay/neuter and vaccinations as needed, free of charge. For more information, please contact the YWCA at (518) 374-3386 or visit the YWCA website at www.ywca_northeasternny.org.

Mohawk Hudson Humane Society

(518) 434-8128

<https://mohawkhumane.org/safehaven.html>

The Safe Haven Program is a partnership between the Mohawk Hudson Humane Society, Unity House and Equinox Inc. The goal of the partnership is to eliminate barriers that prevent women from leaving abusers and to educate the community about the connection between animal abuse and domestic violence. The Society works collaboratively with Domestic Violence Programs in the area to ensure women and their pets will be safe. Victims of domestic violence must first contact Equinox or Unity House to enter the program. Once pets are brought into the program, they are housed in a secure and confidential location. There is no cost to the owner for any of these services.

- Rensselaer County: call the Unity House 24-hour hotline at (518) 272-2370
- Albany County: call the Equinox 24-hour hotline at (518) 432-7865
