Here are other great ways to help grow YOUR reader: “Counting”

Baby (0-12 months): Play “This Little Piggy Went to Market” and count your baby's toes as you go.

Toddler (1-3 years): Collect everyday items around the house and count them. Repeat rhymes and songs that include counting. Here's a favorite:

One, Two, Buckle My Shoe
One, two buckle my shoe
Three, four, shut the door
Five, six, pick up sticks
Seven, eight, lay them straight
Nine, ten, a big fat hen.

Preschooler (3-5 years): Point out numbers wherever you see them; say them out loud so your child associates the written number with the spoken word. Play a simple board game, and help your child count to move their piece.

Books about Counting

Baby:

My Numbers by Rebecca Emberley

Toddler:

Ten, Nine, Eight by Molly Bang

Preschooler:

Have You Seen My Dragon?
by Steve Light

Don't Forget—Count every book!

Count books read by siblings, grandparents, day-care providers, and at storytimes. And, count each time you read a favorite book again and again.
