

Albany Public Library
Full Time Senior Library Clerk
Delaware Branch
November 8, 2022

Note: This position will be filled as a PROVISIONAL Civil Service appointment. The appointee will be required to qualify for permanent appointment to this position when the next classification test is offered.*

General Statement of Duties:

The incumbent performs moderately complex library clerical operations requiring previous library training or knowledge of library techniques. The position involves substantial public contact, assisting patrons with both use of the library collection and general policies and procedures of the library. This class is distinguished from Library Clerk in that tasks performed are more complex, greater independence is exercised and supervision may be exercised over a small staff. A considerable amount of time operating an alphanumeric keyboard is typical. Work is performed under the direct supervision of a Librarian or Principal Library Clerk. Supervision may be exercised over a small number of Library Clerks, Pages, student assistants and volunteers.

Classification: Senior Library Clerk
